The Del Celebrates 130 Year Anniversary

Join us in celebrating our 130th anniversary! Receive a $130 resort credit with any two-night stay in 2018. Stay a little longer and enjoy a $65 resort credit for each additional night.

From private bonfires with s'mores to beachfront movies and luxurious daybeds on sparkling sands, discover the world of inDELible experiences on America's most beloved beach.

historichotels Exterior filming for the comedy classic 'Some Like It Hot' began at The Del on September 8, 1958 and drew such a large crowd at the beach which threatened production. Security was relaxed by today's standards, and many fans were able to come in close contact with the stars. Director Billy Wilder had to ask Marilyn Monroe to tell them to be quiet because the crowd wouldn't listen to him and filming resumed. #takeover historichotels On September 21, 1927, aviator Charles Lindbergh was honored in the Crown Room after his successful transatlantic flight. An estimated 1,000 guests enjoyed "Spirit of St. Louis Striped Bass" and famed humorist Will Rogers remarked, "You'll always be remembered as the only man who ever took a ham sandwich to Paris." #takeover
