The Carneros Inn, a PlumpJack Resort, was created to provide an intimate atmosphere that is reminiscent of its unique surroundings. Nestled among 27 acres of seemingly endless rows of grape vines, unspoiled farmland, and scenic apple orchards, The Carneros Inn's design was based on cues from the local countryside—including barns, silos and ranchers' cottages and combined with stylish, modern interiors—to capture the region's distinct charm as well as the needs of our sophisticated guests.
