Aura J. "Bucky" Miller

Hospitality Legend "Bucky" Miller dies at 85
after 61 Years at the Grand Hotel Marriott.

Point Clear, AL. | Aura J. "Bucky" Miller, longtime hospitality ambassador at the Grand Hotel Marriott, died Friday, August 30, 2002, of complications from diabetes. He was 85 years old.

Bucky began his career at the Grand on April 18, 1941, the first day the hotel reopened and had become a fixture at the resort, where he greeted guests with a hearty, booming welcome. He developed a renowned ability to remember names, and regularly surprised guests with a personalized greeting upon their return.

Bucky was a legend in the hospitality industry, having been honored by the Marriott Corporation with the J. W. Marriott Award of Excellence. The United States Congress and seven southern states have passed resolutions honoring him. In 2002, The Alabama Department of Tourism recognized Miller as one of Alabama's Unforgettable Faces.

Bucky served as bartender and server for the majority of his career in the Birdcage Lounge. He spent his last 12 years at The Grand as the hotel's Hospitality Ambassador, meeting and greeting guests. He became such a familiar figure to guests that the hotel's lounge was named after him - Bucky's Birdcage Lounge.

"Bucky Miller was an institution, he was one of a kind," said Steve Solberg, General Manager of The Grand at the time of his death. "He held a special place in the hearts of our associates and thousands of guests at The Grand. I know I speak for all those people when I say, "we will miss him."

Be sure to step out onto Bucky's Birdcage Terrace to see the life-size bronze statue of Bucky Miller sculpted by local artist Barbara Casey. Bucky's Dedication Celebration took place on May 7, 2005.
