
HISTORIC HOTELS of AMERICA

National Trust for Historic Preservation®

2019 FACT SHEET

PURPOSE

Historic Hotels of America® is the official program of the National Trust for Historic Preservation for recognizing, celebrating, and promoting the finest historic hotels. Each fascinating place has been inducted into this distinguished program based upon noteworthy standards, including quality of accommodations, historic significance, record of preserving authenticity, sense of place and architectural integrity.

FOUNDING DATE

Historic Hotels of America was founded in 1989 by the National Trust for Historic Preservation with 32 charter members. To learn more about the first quarter of a century of Historic Hotels of America, visit here.

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA

To be nominated and selected for membership in this prestigious program, a hotel must be at least 50 years old; designated by the U.S. Secretary of the Interior as a National Historic Landmark or listed in or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places; and recognized as having historic significance. The Historic Sites Act of 1935 authorized the U.S. Secretary of the Interior to formally record and organize historic properties and to designate them as having national historical significance and gave the National Park Service authority to administer the program. The National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 established the National Register of Historic Places for recognizing districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects worthy of preservation. Both programs were combined with oversight by the National Park Service. Travelers can discover over 23 historic hotels designated by the U.S. Secretary of the Interior as National Historic Landmarks and experience more than 126 historic hotels listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

HERITAGE

Members of Historic Hotels of America represent the heritage and development of America. One of the earliest hotels, Hotel El Convento in Old San Juan, Puerto Rico is a former Carmelite Convent dating to 1651. Another, Concord's Colonial Inn dates to 1716. During the Revolutionary War, one of the inn's original buildings stored arms and provisions for the Concord Minutemen. One other example is the Omni Homestead Resort in Hot Springs, Virginia. Known as America's First Resort, The Homestead has been welcoming guests since 1766.

“The work of Historic Hotels of America is indispensable in maintaining architectural masterpieces, which not only continue to serve the traveling public, but are also enduring monuments to our national heritage.”

-Dr. A.K. Sandoval-Strausz, Ph.D., History Professor, University of New Mexico, Distinguished Lecturer, Organization of American Historians

“If a hotel was not built recently, then consumers will categorize the hotel as either historic or old. Obviously, it is better to be historic.”

“Academic research conducted across several different industries suggests that brand heritage supports premium pricing. ... historic hotels can achieve a significant advantage in ADR and REVPAR versus contemporary hotels ... The key variable seems to be the degree to which the older hotel emphasizes and celebrates its history.”

-Bradford Hudson, Ph.D., Marketing Professor, Boston College, Excerpts from his keynote address to owners, general managers, and other senior leadership attending the 2015 Annual Conference of Historic Hotels of America.
