Art

The Inn at Wise is proud to exhibit original works of art by artisans from Southwest Virginia and throughout the Appalachian artisan community. Curated by Teresa Robinette, the Inn's gallery represents all genres and we welcome all art lovers to view these beautiful works.

History of The Inn at Wise

1856—Wise County formed.

1870—The land is used for The Dotson Hotel.

1909—Wise Hotel Corporation is formed and hires D.J. Phipps to build 22-room hotel for $17,000.

1910—The hotel is re-opened.

1925—The hotel is acquired by Herbert Thompson and re-named The Inn at Wise Courthouse.

1990s—The hotel falls into disrepair and closes.

December 9, 2014—After intense renovation, The Inn at Wise is artfully resurrected; celebrating the past while lifting it into a new present-day grandeur.

Eating

The Colonial Dining Room

The Colonial is an upscale-casual restaurant featuring a delightful mix of traditional southern classics and nouveau-Appalachian favorites, all accompanied by effortless hospitality and gracious service.

The Corner Diner

The Diner is a blast from the past that takes you right back to your sock hop days. Take a bite out of the "best burger in town," or keep it simple with a Chef's Salad...no matter which way you slice it, The Diner will please your palate.

The Pub & Tap Room

Stop for Happy Hour, a nightcap, or just a daily dose of community. This bar is a local favorite and once you experience it you may never want to leave...just like our ghosts. The aromas of comfort foods and traditional pub fare will greet you as you enter, and no visit would be complete without a sampling of local brews and wines.

All menus vary seasonally, and feature ingredients sourced from local farmers. Wines from Southwest Virginia vineyards are always available. We encourage you to stop by any of our dining rooms to check the latest menus or visit www.innatwise.com. Days and hours of each operation vary seasonally.

Meeting

Allow our professional team to take care of each and every detail of your event with flawless precision while your guests bask in the ambience of The Inn's gracious conference space.

Our meeting space comfortably accommodates groups of eight for a business luncheon to galas of 250 for the black-tie wedding of the decade – and everything in between. Do you travel to the area often for business? Speak with a member of our sales team to see if your employer might qualify for corporate negotiated rates and travel with a greater sense of ease.

The possibilities are endless with The Inn at Wise.
