

Reader's Digest

15 Last-Minute Winter Travel Deals to Book for 2018

If you forgot to book your dream vacation in advance and are desperately searching for exciting—and affordable—travel deals, you'll love our list of cost-friendly travel packages for winter 2018.

BY BRYCE GRUBER

The Alpina Gstaad in Switzerland

VIA THEALPINAGSTAAD.CH

Switzerland is known as one of the safest countries in the world, making it one of those ideal places for women to travel alone. It's also filled with rich history, vibrant architecture and food, a nearly overwhelming amount of cheese, and some of the most Instagram-worthy scenery on the planet. The Alpina Gstaad is one of the high-end resorts you absolutely need to see, offering five-star accommodations, refined luxury, and Alpine-chic stylings. None of this comes cheap, but as part of Preferred Hotels & Resorts 50th anniversary celebrations, they're offering a Golden Anniversary package, which rewards travelers with the best available rate plus a $50/£50/€50 hotel credit or a 50-minute activity at more than 200 participating hotels around the world, including Alpina Gstaad.

The Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado

VIA BROADMOOR.COM

The Broadmoor is one of Colorado's top resorts for golfing, spa time, and wilderness experiences like fly fishing camp (seriously, that's a real thing!). The combination of indoor and outdoor activities means it has something to offer for just about every style of vacationer out there, which is why it's particularly exciting to know that this hotel is also participating in the Preferred Hotels & Resorts 50th anniversary package, offering $50 off the best available nightly rate. Check out their full list of hotel amenities.