

LOCKWOOD BAR

ADORED LIBATIONS

FONTANAFREDDA SELLALUNGA D'ALBA BAROLO '07

Made from 100% Nebbiolo, a varietal similar to Pinot Noir. This wine has great aging potential; silky but bold & intense tannins, a robust & velvety finish, aromas of violets, dark cherries, undertones of wild berries, fresh mushrooms & truffles. Since the wine spends a considerable amount of time in Barrel & bottle before being released, it needs time to open up & show its wonderful fruit aromas. We recommend decanting it.

Enjoy this treasure wine that in Piemonte is called:

THE KING OF WINES, THE WINE OF KINGS. Salute!!

- Beverage Manager and Wine Steward, Tito Conza

PALMER HOUSE SELECT BOURBON MANHATTAN

"I traveled to the Woodford Reserve Distillery and after careful selection, hand-picked flavor components, and a customized batch, our bar now carries a one-of-a-kind bourbon. My favorite preparation is as the classic Manhattan, worthy of this historic hotel."

- Beverage Manager, Patrick Coyne

WINE EVENTS

WINE JOURNEY: MEET THE WINERY

Tito Conza, Lockwood Wine Steward, invites you to step into the beauty that is the historic Palmer House Hilton and experience a wine journey like no other! The last Wednesday of every month Lockwood Restaurant & Bar offers a rare chance to indulge your senses and experience Wine Maker's passion and knowledge of their craft. $25 per attendee. The price includes wine tastings along with Chef Joseph Rose's selected accompaniments. Also, if you wish to continue your experience with the Wine Maker, Chef Joseph Rose and Tito Conza have personally created a onetime only menu for your exclusive wine dinner after the class.

FEATURING: BONNY DOON VINEYARD

RANDALL GRAHM: Like Columbus who sought a trade route to Asia, Randall Graham set sail in 1979 for the Great American Pinot Noir, foundered on the shoals of astringency and finesse lessons and ended up running around in the utterly unexpected New World of Rhône and Italian grape varieties. By dint of exceptionally good karma, Randall was given the opportunity to taste an ungodly number of great French wines while working at the Wine Merchant in Beverly Hills and this singular experience turned him into a complete and insufferable wine fanatic. Randall purchased property in the Santa Cruz Mountains in a hypnagogically quaint area known as Bonny Doon intent on producing the Great American Pinot Noir. The late great Bonny Doon Estate Vineyard (1981-1994) was eventually planted to syrah, roussanne, marsanne and viognier and produced beautiful wines confirming both that California's temperate climate is well suited to the sun-loving grapes of the Mediterranean. Bonny Doon's Ca' del Solo vineyard in Monterey County, planted just out of searchlight's reach of the state pen in Soledad, has been planted to an ever expanding roster of Italian varieties such as Nebbiolo, Barbera, Pinot Grigio, Dolcetto and Freisa.
